Red Feather Native Home Resource Network - Case Management, APS Home Weatherization, and USDA HPG Combined Applications

Who is eligible?

This is an application for multiple programs offered by Red Feather for families living on the Hopi or Navajo reservations. There is no up-front cost to participate in this program. Priority is given to the elderly, disabled, veterans, families with children. Some of the resources we have available at our disposal have restrictions on income, geography, and utility provider. Other resources like soliciting volunteer labor to help on your project do not have limitations. Regardless of your situation, we encourage you to provide all requested information as this will enable us to identify the best possible way to help.

What type of work is covered?

Home health and safety repairs and weatherization measures are intended to make the home healthier, safer and more energy efficient. Examples of repairs are roof damage, tripping and falling hazards, electrical and plumbing, and new heating systems. We do not provide cosmetic improvements like new cabinets or high-end countertops. We rarely assist families with new homes and/or additions to their existing structure.

What type of assistance is provided?

- General and Aging in Place Home assessments
- Development of repair scopes of work
- Acquire necessary funding through grant and loan application assistance.
- Sub-contractor management
- Material procurement
- Home repair Project Management
- Home Weatherization (insulation, window and door repair, drywall, air sealing)
- Resource recommendations
- Volunteer Labor Solicitation

Photo and Video Release:

Red Feather relies on outlets like Facebook, Instagram, and our website and newsletters to share projects with individuals and groups that may be interested in our work. Providing the public with a personal connection to our work helps us solicit resources that are used to help assist individuals in need like you. It is not required that you provide consent, nor will it disqualify you from receiving help if you decline but is helpful to our work and deeply appreciated.

Please indicate whether you are willing to give Red Feather consent to document your project and use as needed in support of our programs and services:

Reciprocity and Project Contribution

Applicants requesting help under our Native Home Resource Network that are willing to have an active role in their project are given a higher priority in receiving assistance from Red Feather. Since our work is provided to the homeowner for free, we see this as a way of showing appreciation for the services that are provided. Listed below are some suggested ways that you can help.

Please check those that you may be able to help with:

- Donating art for raffle or a gift to donors
- Hosting a volunteer or group interested in learning more about your community.
- Contributing labor with construction skills to your project
- Providing meals for volunteers working on-site on your project
- Contributing building materials to your project
- Staying engaged in your project: completing all paperwork, returning phone calls, tracking down potential leads such as meeting with local services providers on request.

Tell us a personal story we can share with our supporters. How did you hear of Red Feather? Any challenges you have faced? What are your hopes in receiving health and safety home assistance? Etc.
